

Humanist Funeral Archive consent form

This form invites you to give your permission to Bishopsgate Institute to archive and make available to bonafide researchers the humanist funeral tribute for the purposes of not-for-profit education and research in the Humanist Funeral Archive at Bishopsgate Institute, London.

This does not in any way compromise your own copyright in these items.

Please note that Bishopsgate Institute will keep a record of your contact details, including your address and telephone number. However we will not pass these details on to any third party without your permission, and comply with the Data Protection Act 1998.

This Tribute concerns:.....

Birth/Death Date:.....

I hereby give permission to Bishopsgate Institute to archive my donation for research and education purposes, and grant permission for the material to be accessible to the public in the following ways:

- At Bishopsgate Institute and via its online Archives Catalogue
- I wish the tribute to be closed from public access for a set time

Number of Years to be closed:.....

On Behalf of the Family:

Signed.....

Full name (in capital letters)

Address.....

.....

.....

Email address

so that we can notify you when the tribute has been uploaded to our online archive

Description of donated item(s):

- Funeral Tribute
- Order of service
- Photographs
- Number of photographs